BOARD CHAIR'S REPORT: George Brazil gives the Chair's Report. He states that CCIDC continues its mission in 2026 by upholding professional standards for Certified Interior Designers, with efforts focused on financial stability, advancing certification and examination processes, and increasing awareness of the Certified Interior Designer Title Act. Brazil reports the Sunset Review was successfully completed, IDEX® examination updates are implemented with standard setting anticipated to finalize in early June 2026, and stakeholder outreach continues through the Education and Marketing Committees. Brazil concludes by expressing sincere appreciation to fellow Board members, committee members, and staff as he concludes his term as Board Chair.

MINUTES: Stead made a motion, seconded by Garcia, to approve the board meeting minutes for 01/17/2026. The motion was carried unanimously.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Julissa Garcia presented the financial report as of March 31, 2026. She reported total income of $54,875 (21% of the annual budget) and expenditures of $62,999 (25% of the annual budget), with a net operating revenue of -$5,127.89 for the period. Garcia reviewed the balance sheet reflecting total assets of $104,494.63 and presented the budget-to-actual and profit-and-loss statements for the fiscal year.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT: Roze Wiebe reported on legislative activity affecting the interior design profession in California. She noted two bills currently under consideration: AB 2772 (Sunset Review Extension & Language Changes) and AB 1796 (Professional Interior Designer Practice Act). Wiebe provided context on AB 1796, which proposes a shift from California's current Title Act framework to a Practice Act, noting that only 100–600 individuals may qualify under the bill while thousands of current practitioners could be affected. She encouraged Certified Interior Designers to read the bill directly, ask informed questions, and evaluate its real-world impact on the profession before forming an opinion. Participation information is available on the CCIDC website.

Executive Director Quarterly Report: Staff Reporting: Roze Wiebe provided a quarterly update covering administrative activity, outreach, legislation, and examination development. Outreach activities included a presentation to Sacramento State on February 9, 2026, a presentation to College of the Canyons on March 26, 2026, and participation in the CA Masonry Expo on April 30, 2026. Wiebe reported the Joint Sunset Review Hearing was held March 24, 2026, with CCIDC's position that the current certification framework effectively protects public health, safety, and welfare without unnecessary barriers; AB 2772 moved on consent and is scheduled for a Senate committee hearing in August 2026. Following adoption of the updated California Building Codes effective January 1, 2026, CCIDC completed standards-setting meetings and finalized IDEX® examination updates aligned with the 2025 California Building Code cycle, with the updated exam implemented for the May 2026 window. Wiebe presented the CID status report as of March 31, 2026, reflecting 5,625 total certified individuals, 1,647 currently active, and 3,978 no longer active, and reported on plan check denials submitted to CCIDC, noting the organization continues working with jurisdictions regarding acceptance of the CID stamp and compliance with the Certified Interior Designer Title Act.

Certification Program Manager's Report: Staff Reporting: Camryn Burns presented an update on CCIDC marketing, social media activity, and IDEX® California examination activity for the first quarter of 2026. She reported that Q1 efforts focused on refining content clarity, aligning messaging with professional audiences, and maintaining consistent posting across all platforms. Burns reported Instagram had 2,159 followers with 39 posts published, Facebook had 6,643 followers with engagement up approximately 14%, and LinkedIn had 677 followers with 1,300+ impressions and an 8% engagement rate supported by approximately 90 posts.

Burns presented the IDEX® California candidate report as of March 31, 2026. She reported 57 applications received for the May 2026 cycle, with 2 approved and certified, 4 approved and pending payment, 24 approved and pending compliance, and 40 currently scheduled for the exam. Additional pending categories included 43 awaiting documentation, 73 failed yet to retake, and 20 yet to schedule.

COMMITTEE REPORTS: Various Chairs Reporting:

Advocacy Committee: Roze Wiebe reported on the Advocacy Committee. She stated the committee monitors and responds to legislation and regulations affecting Certified Interior Designers in California, and empowers CIDs through education, awareness, and advocacy. She reported the next committee meeting is scheduled for August 6, 2026.

Education Committee: Camryn Burns reported on the Education Committee. She noted the committee advances excellence in interior design education by engaging educators, students, and Certified Interior Designers, supporting awareness of the Certified Interior Designer Title Act, and upholding the integrity of the IDEX® California Exam. She reported that the next committee meeting is scheduled for August 5, 2026.

Marketing & Outreach Committee: Camryn Burns reported on the Marketing & Outreach Committee and continued outreach to interior design school programs and distribution of educational resources supporting awareness of the Certified Interior Designer Title Act. She stated the next committee meeting is scheduled for August 4, 2026, and participation information is available on the CCIDC website.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE: Roze Wiebe reported on the Legislative Committee and legislation affecting the interior design profession in California, including AB 2772 (Sunset Review Extension) and AB 1796 (Practice Act).
