Public Notices and Public Comment

CCIDC provides public notices of proposed and approved changes affecting Certified Interior Designers (CIDs), certification applicants, and the public. Notices identify the changes, relevant dates, and opportunities to submit comments or obtain additional information.

Notice of Approved Certification Renewal Fee and Stamp Option Changes

Board approval date: October 17, 2026
Effective date: January 1, 2027

The California Council for Interior Design Certification (CCIDC), Inc. hereby notifies Certified Interior Designers and the public of changes to certification renewal fees and available stamp options approved by the CCIDC Board of Directors at its October 17, 2026 meeting.

The proposal was published in the Board meeting agenda and supporting materials before Board consideration and adoption. This additional notice informs CIDs and the public of the approved changes before their implementation on January 1, 2027.

Approved Renewal Fees

Effective January 1, 2027, CCIDC will offer the following two-year certification renewal options:

Renewal Option	Two-Year Renewal Fee
Basic Renewal	$325
Digital Stamp Renewal	$350

Discontinuation of Rubber Stamps and Both Stamps Renewal Options

Due to increasing costs, CCIDC will no longer offer rubber stamps beginning January 1, 2027. Accordingly, the Rubber Stamp Renewal and Both Stamps Renewal options will be discontinued.

Basic Renewal and Digital Stamp Renewal will be the available renewal options beginning on that date.
